Not illustrated. 1923 Excerpt: . . . ministrative offices, notably the Departments of War, Navy, Interior, and Agriculture, as sanctioning disregard of General Regulations No. 13 issued by this office November 25, 1922, and resulting in overpayments by disbursing officers aggregating vast sums, much unnecessary work, confusion in the accounts of the Government and the carriers, and a most unbusinesslike procedure. Such overpayments are, of course, being worked out in the audit of the disbursing officers accounts and charged back or otherwise recovered for the Government. The conclusion announced by the Acting Attorney General in the present matter is that the Employees Compensation Commission has the power by virtue of the act under which it was created to construe the terms of said act, and that any construction so rendered is final and beyond interference by other governmental officials. If it is to be understood from this expression that in the...

This publication will never be straightforward to get going on looking at but really fun to see. This can be for all those who statte that there had not been a worth looking at. You wont really feel monotony at at any moment of your own time (that's what catalogs are for about should you request me).
