Commission procedures do not provide for commissioners and senior Procedures Do Not Ensure Commission staff to systematically receive project cost information - the Inclusion of Cost primarily staff time charges - to help commissioners and senior staff plan Information and monitor projects. Commissioners continue to approve the majority of projects and products each year without having any specific information on how much the project will cost, or how much similar projects have cost in past years. Both federal government guidance and private sector project management specialists emphasize the importance of top-level reviews of actual performance. Feedback about actual project performance, including costs, is basic information essential for sound...
