Excerpt: . . . 11 hold the unique government-to-government relationship with Tribes. There is much that needs to be done and that we can do, in partnership with our Nations Indian Tribes, to improve conditions and provide a more hopeful future. The 2002 budget includes 2. 2 billion for BIA, an increase of 65. 9 million or three percent over the 2001 level, and a 17 percent increase over the 2000 level. The budget contains sub-stantial funding for Native American initiatives and builds on increases provided last year for school construction, Indian education programs, and trust management improvements. Building Better Schools in Indian Country President Bush has pledged to leave no child behind. To accomplish the goal, we must improve the schools that serve nearly 50, 000 children. The BIA, through its management of 185 Indian schools, is one of only two agencies in the Federal government directly responsible for an elementary and secondary school system. In 2002, BIA will fulfill the Presidents commitment to improve education in America by implementing a two-pronged approach improving education facilities and...
