Excerpt: .at the Mission, but ever since the Mission doors first opened our sister has been one of its most faithful and devoted workers. Not only in the Mission services is she to be found regularly, but when any of the Mission family is sick, there our sister is to be found nursing them-in her capable way and comforting them with the comfort whercwith she herself has been comforted of God. One day, after trying by resolutions and determination to please God, she heard the story of salvation through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and received God s unspeakable gift and found life in believing. Mrs. McAllister is the teacher of the Vomen s Junior Bible Class, consisting of a number of young women who have yielded their lives to God--many of them quite recently and is greatly beloved for her faithful devotion. a, r a Yet another Anniversary was that of our dear sister, Mrs. Neubeck. This year it fell on Easter Sunday, and it was one of the delights of that wonderful Easter service to hear our sister praise God for the wonderful day when her eyes were opened to see that Christ died for her sin and rose again for her justification. a, a t These Anniversary days are redletter days and though so many cannot be with us to celebrate because of their residence in other cities, far distant, we think of them and pray for them. We Mission folk...
