Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Training School Administration, Vol. 8 8. Preparatory conference shall be held on Saturday morning, two weeks before the beginning of work by new teachers, and for this purpose a special schedule of engagements will be arranged and announced. 9. All concurrent methods classes shall be suspended during the last week of each term so that the time thus saved for student-teachers and faculty may be employed in visiting new classes and in preparatory conferences. 10. Teachers shall visit room and classes to which they are assigned, (or other classes suggested by the supervisor), at least five times, (save when especially excused), as far as possible upon the off days of subjects in which they are registered, and in case of conflict upon days designated by the subject teacher with whose work the visiting may be in conflict; provided that not more than one day of visiting shall be allowed in conflict with preparatory methods classes. 11. No student-teacher assigned to a section shall be removed therefrom or shifted in any way without due notice Thirst given to the supervisor concerned, except in emergency substitutions, and in such cases notice shall be given as soon as possible. 12. All substitutes and teachers newly assigned shall be notified, by the Training School Principal, to consult all supervisors concerned in order that adequate preparation may be made for their new work. 13. All teachers assigned for rural school service shall be instructed to notify their supervisors in order that arrangements may be made for such duty. In case there is reason to believe that serious damage will be done by such assignment, the supervisor should present the facts...
