

A Very Deer Love Story (Paperback)

By Michael J. Smajda

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2000. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 227 x 151 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A VERY DEER LOVE STORY is a Christmas tale about an orphan fawn named Estherell and her unusual meeting with famous Rudolph one Christmastime. Estherell is desperately seeking food and shelter while Rudolph is despondent over his non-glowing nose. While aimlessly wandering together, a near tragedy takes place. In overcoming the ordeal, the two also resolve their personal problems. This leads them to displaying love for each other and eventual marriage performed by none other than Santa Claus. During their honeymoon travels, they experience a variety of adventures. Rudolph is challenged to a duel over Estherell's affection. The deer wander into the town of Bethlehem and pay homage to baby Jesus lying in the manger. And as they venture back to the North Pole, they unselfishly perform acts of charity to a former foe. In conclusion, Estherell gives birth to a fawn of her own.
