Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Income Splitting Under the Individual Income Tax, Vol. 6 In 1948, the Committee on Ways and Means adopted the income-splitting provisions which became a part of the Revenue Act of 1948 as finally enacted. The objectives stated in the report on the 1948 bill were (1) to produce substantial geographical equalization in the impact of the individual income tax on married couples residing in community and non-community-property States; (2) to forestall the unfortunate enactment of community-property legislation by commonlaw States; (3) to reduce the incentive for married couples in common-law States to decrease their taxes by splitting their income through such devices as trusts, joint tenancies, and family partnerships; (4) to reduce the administrative difficulties stemming from the use of such devices; and (5) to reduce the need for legislation on the income-tax treatment of trusts and family partnerships. The income-splitting provisions made substantial reductions in the tax liabilities of married couples. In making other decreases in the individual income taxes, the Revenue Act of 1948 provided a larger reduction in tax in the first...
