Not illustrated. 1910 Excerpt: .for at least three months in an inquirers class, and kept on probation at least six months before being received. It was interesting to us to notice that of the 23 8 were children in the schools; 5 were parents of these children, and probably began their interest through the influence of the schools. Of the entire 24 10 were men, and it has been gratifying to see a marked increase in the attendance of men of the better class. The inquirers classes, of which there were several, were held weekly. Those for men were taught by Mr. Lee; those for women and children by Mrs. Lee and Miss Quinby. Besides these classes Miss Scott had a Bible class for women who are members of the church, and Mr. Lee had a class for men also for Bible study and for studying the problems of personal...
