August 20, 1812, a Day of National Humiliation, Recommended by the President, at the Request The gospel breathes a benevolent, pacific spirit. It proclaims peace on earth, good will to men. Let its spirit be imbibed, and its precepts be obeyed, universally; then strife and contention, war and bloodshed would cease. Man would no longer be foe to man; nor be employed in spreading distress, and misery, and death among his fellow creatures. But the law of love would rule in every heart; the law of kindness be on every tongue; to save, not to destroy men, would be the grand pursuit. All would comply with the golden rule - Whatever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them. Prosperity and peace would every where abound. We should have new heavens and a new earth. But, alas! what different scenes do we behold. What a sinful, wretched place is this earth? Among those, who are most highly favored with...

Reviews

This publication is indeed gripping and intriguing. It is actually written in basic terms and not difficult to understand. I am just pleased to explain how here is the greatest publication we have read through during my own lifestyle and could be the best pdf for at any time.
