Students from the University of Rome are still suffering the after-effects of 1968 and there are moments of chaos with violence, sometimes bloody, between police and young people of the extra-parliamentary left. Luca consideres himself a neutral observer in the front line while with his group of friends spends his study free time to comment the experiences of the French Scapigliatura and writings of Hermann Hesse or to listen to silent contemplation his music (David Bowie). Then his life changes suddenly when, involved, in spite of himself, in a stampede caused by a charge of cops meets Gilda who helps him to hide. Gilda comes from a wealthy family of Milan. She studies sociology and she is the leader of the Trotskyite group in Volsci street. Between the two young comes an upsetting and dangerous passion. He finds himself hunted by the Digos (political police), who believes he is the mind of Red Brigades of the roman column...
