That he would eventually extricate himself from his present embarrassing position they did not for a moment doubt, and they smoked their long water pipes in serenity as they awaited the expected denouement. When Joy Come awoke that afternoon she was thoroughly tired of her prison. The shelf was too near the ceiling for her to stand upright, and she longed to jump and run. She almost pushed one of the tea boxes off the shelf in trying to turn around. She pulled her primer and three marbles out of her pocket and began to play with them, but she was dreadfully lonesome just the same. Then too, she was hungry. Ah Lon could not bring her any breakfast because Gum Yohe would persist in sewing by the kitchen table, and Ah Lon dared not so much as look...
