

Direct investments in foreign countries

By Tobias Kannen

GRIN Verlag Jul 2007, 2007. Taschenbuch. Book Condition: Neu. 214x149x2 mm. This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Seminar paper from the year 2004 in the subject Business economics - Investment and Finance, grade: 10 (Skala von 0 bis 10), University of Piraeus (Department of Business Administration), course: Seminar: Fundamentals of Management, language: English, abstract: In the 20th century, global competition and entering in foreign markets are not only opportunities for companies which want to improve their business position. As an example one study indentified 136 U.S. Industries including automobiles, accounting services, entertainment, consumer electronics, and publishing that will have to compete on a global basis or disappear. There are different ways in which to enter in a foreign market: Exporting, licensing, franchising, entering into a joint venture with a host country company, and setting up a wholly owned subsidiary in the host country. This term paper will concentrate on the last two ways, which are called direct investments, which means that the company is involved in managing the productive assets, which distinguishes it from other entry strategies that permit less managerial control. It seems to be clear that, in general, competing in foreign markets...
