

Lost Decades: The Making of America's Debt Crisis and the Long Recovery

By Menzie D. Chinn, Jeffrey A. Frieden

WW Norton & Co. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Lost Decades: The Making of America's Debt Crisis and the Long Recovery, Menzie D. Chinn, Jeffrey A. Frieden, The U.S. economy lost the first decade of the twenty-first century to an ill-conceived boom and subsequent bust. It is in danger of losing another decade to the stagnation of an incomplete recovery. How did this happen? Read this lucid explanation of the origins and long-term effects of the recent financial crisis, drawn in historical and comparative perspective by two leading political economists. By 2008 the United States had become the biggest international borrower in world history, with more than two-thirds of its $6 trillion federal debt in foreign hands. The proportion of foreign loans to the size of the economy put the United States in league with Mexico, Indonesia, and other third-world debtor nations. The massive inflow of foreign funds financed the booms in housing prices and consumer spending that fueled the economy until the collapse of late 2008. This was the most serious international economic crisis since the Great Depression of the 1930s. Menzie Chinn and Jeffrey Frieden explain the political and economic roots of this crisis as well as...
