Hathaway, . - Present Worth C000 00 500 00 750 00 8250 00 17070 15500 1570 By comparing the numerals in these statements with those in the Trial Balance, it will be seen that all the Ledger accounts are used, and that the original purpose of each account is fully recognized. The statement of Gains and Losses will afford a more practical idea of the advantages of double entry than could be enforced in any other manner. The bare assertion that all gains are the result of an increase, and all losses of a decrease in weal th could not be denied; but the proof of the assertion, drawn from the Ledger itself, as indicated in the above statements, will carry conviction which must be conclusive and abiding. Commencing business without capital, it will be easily understood that the present worth, or nef capital at any time, must exactly correspond with the net gain. From these illustrations we derive the following RULES. /--To find the Net Gain: Subtract the sum of all the Losses from...
