

The Assessment of Doctoral Education: Emerging Criteria and New Models for Improving Outcomes

By Peggy L. Maki, Nancy A. Borkowski

Stylus Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Assessment of Doctoral Education: Emerging Criteria and New Models for Improving Outcomes, Peggy L. Maki, Nancy A. Borkowski, Following the growing commitment to assessment at the undergraduate level, doctoral programs are now exploring, developing, sharing, adapting, and implementing new practices to assess their programs, students' learning, and students' perceptions of their learning. This book provides a foundation for faculty and academic leaders of doctoral programs to promote inquiry into the educational practices that define their programs and contribute to graduate students' learning. It presents an array of representative examples of new program- and student-level assessment practices that are being adopted. The book encourages faculty and academic leaders to reconsider the process and to formulate new questions to inquire into the efficacy of educational practices and traditions, such as the dissertation, that have historically led to the confirmation of the highest degree awarded across our higher education institutions. It will prompt constructive discussion of desired student learning outcomes, and of the kinds of assessment methods that provide evidence of what and how students learn within the context of educational practices. The ideas and practices described here will expand program review to include...

Reviews

The very best pdf i possibly study. It generally will not expense excessive. You wont really feel monotony at anytime of the time (that's what catalogs are for concerning should you ask me).
